Palm-Aire's Five Golf Courses

Brief Description

oaks

par: 71 greens: tif eagle / fairways: bermuda designed: 1971 By George & Tom Fazio (Restored '98) Events Hosted: 1999 Nike South Florida Classic, Florida Open and Dixie Amateur Championship

Following a dramatic $3 million restoration by Fazio Design Inc. in 1998, this Fazio masterpiece is one of South Florida's finest tests of golf. The revolutionary tif eagle greens have drawn rave reviews from Nike Tour pros, PGA Tour officials, Golf Channel broadcasters and countless golfers as the finest putting surface in South Florida.

cypress

par: 71 greens/fairways: bermuda designed: 1972 by George & Tom Fazio events hosted: Florida Open, Dixie Amateur Championship and Men's Broward Amateur

This timeless, Fazio classic attracts players worldwide due to its unique combination of picturesque beauty and daring challenge. Meandering fairways, framed by a parade of tropical landscaping and crystal clear lakes, compliment the gently undulating greens and powdery bunkers of this spectacular layout.

designed: 1959 by William Mitchell (Renovated '96) events hosted: 1998 Nike South Florida Classic, 1998 Florida Open and Toyota Skills Challenge

Host to countless major golf events, this classic resort course offers players of all abilities a memorable golfing experience. Parallel and lateral water hazards border the spacious fairways, while oversized greens allow for strategic pin placements. Since its 1996 renovation by Karl Litten, the Palms has become a must-play golf destination.

designed: 1968 By Robert Von Hagge & Bruce Devlin events hosted: 1996 Florida Open, Men's & Ladies Broward Amateur and Toyota Skills Challenge

Characterized by flowing fairways and well-protected greens, this rustic course has long been a favorite of local golfers. In 2001, all 18 greens were replanted with new tif dwarf greens. According to a recent Sun-Sentinel review, "The Pines course is a great value. You get country club golf and amenities at municipal prices."

sabals

designed: 1969 by Robert Von Hagge & Bruce Devlin

This quaint Par 60 course is ideal for beginners, seniors, juniors and anyone who enjoys the thrill of an executive course. Walk or ride this unique blend of challenging par threes and fours. No tee times are required to enjoy this course.
